Sharing Christ in one Minute

The mandate that Christ gave us when he lived amongst us was to witness to others about him. Some Christians however find it difficult to share Christ. Some of the reasons may include:

1. Fear
2. Lack of knowledge of how to go about it
3. Lack of desire
4. Lack of an opportunity to share

We have opportunities always presented to us by the Holy Spirit to tell others about Christ. I know many of the readers would really wish to share the gospel of Jesus to others. Here is a one minute witness plan you can use (Developed by Oasis World Ministries, www.Oneminutewitness.org).

1. Permission- After creating a rapport with the person you want to talk to, ask him or her whether he can allow you to ask him/ her a question
 - a. May I ask you a question, what is the best thing that ever happened to you? Let him/her respond
 - b. May I share the best thing that's ever happened to me?
2. Describe your life before Christ. Share your testimony. Use adjectives like I was fearful, hopeless etc
3. Describe your turning point. Mention how you met Jesus and how he changed your life
4. Describe your life after meeting Jesus.
5. State how your life would be without Christ. "If I had never met Christ..."

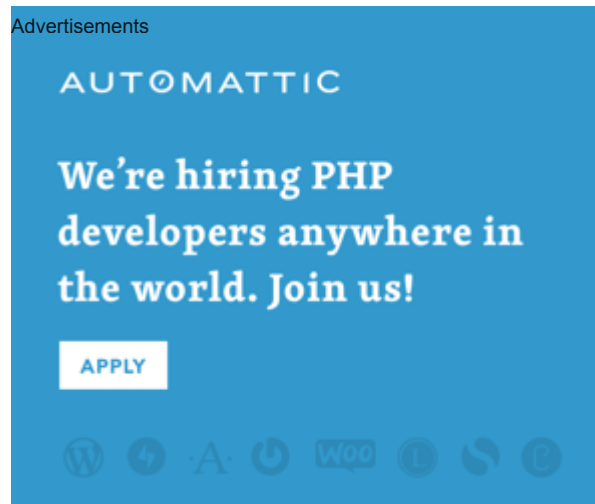

Voila! You have shared Christ in a minute. You can lead the person to Christ if he wishes, answer the questions he/she has or exchange contacts to talk later.

Always ask the Holy Spirit to give you an opportunity to share your testimony to others. He has many people he can lead you to. Your testimony is for Christ's glory. Use it to serve God. What a joy it is to share what Christ has done to you

If you lead the person to Christ, point to him to

1. Read the Bible daily
2. Pray daily
3. Join a Bible believing church to attend weekly

The Fire that should consume us

Flame-hearted Men Are The Crying Need Of The Hour! (adapted from HERALD OF HIS COMING)

By Leonard Ravenhill

(<https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2017/03/wp-1490932269324.jpg>)

Men aflame are needed for this midnight hour. The Flame of the living God became the Flame of the human heart to the glorious company in the upper room on the day of Pentecost. The church began with men in the upper room – agonizing, and is ending with them in the supper room – organizing. The church began in revival, it is ending in ritual. It started virile, it is ending sterile. The charter members of the church were men of heat and no degrees, the church ends with many holding degrees, but no heat!

Ah, brethren, Flame-hearted men are the crying need of the hour! Men to be a pillar of fire. God-guided men to lead a misguided people. Passionate Pauls to stir timid Timothies. Men of Flame to outshine and outburn men of name. We need knights of prayer to lead nights of prayer. We need true prophets to warn of false profits. "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?" (Mark 8:36).

The cry is, “Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly...Let the priests, the ministers of the Lord, weep...” (Joel 2:15-17).

Inspired men are desperately needed! Believers with Spirit-generated souls are indispensable to this degenerate generation. The gale of end-time iniquity will blow out mere human flame.

The wise will understand. Be alarmed! The conflict gets stiffer! This is the night of blight and plight. Was there ever such an evil hour? Reiterated effort is the price we have to pay for progress. As the church goes, so goes the world!

POSSESSING THE GATES OF YOUR ENEMIES

February 21, 2017 by prayerunlimited

1487708125668.png

_https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2017/02/wp-

Genesis 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah, and said to her, You are our sister, be you the mother of thousands of millions, and let your seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

Every Country, city, home or neighborhood has gates. Gates are both entry as well as exit points. Whoever controls the gates controls the city. This is greatly realised during time of war in the physical realms.

The Bible records that Christians are at war. Contemporary English Version records in Ephesians 6:12 that "We are not fighting against humans. We are fighting against forces and authorities and against rulers of darkness and powers in the spiritual world."

Many homes, communities, cities and the like have their gates controlled by wicked powers. These oppress and intimidate those within. Do you know that as a born again Christian you can control whatever happens where God has placed you. God has given each one of us power and authority to control the gates and cities where we live in for wherever the soles of our feet tread, God gives us that land. God told Joshua in Joshua 1:3 that Every place that the sole of your foot shall tread upon, that have I given unto you, as I said unto Moses.

We are ordained as Kings and priests and wherever we are we should act like the masters. The enemy knows it but won't give it up if we don't arise and control whatever happens where we are.

The enemy will try to fight back, when taking such lands for the Lord, just as it happens in the physical realms. His resistance and weapons, however, are not as deadly as the ones in our arsenal. We arise and take it by force. Jesus told his disciples, "And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" Matthew 16:18. Gates of wickedness or wickedness will try to control the Church but we are to prevail against them. A believer can do this in spiritual warfare or in corporate prayers. The battle intensifies with the expanse of the area covered. David knew this kind of warfare, he would call upon the name of the lord to intervene.

Psalms 24:7-8 Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And the King of Glory shall come in. Who is this King of Glory? Jehovah strong and mighty, Jehovah mighty in battle.

As done in the physical realms, the best strategy would be to bind the strong man and destroy him, then destroy the gates of the enemies and their cities. You can do so by declaring by the power of the Holy Spirit in Jesus you are possessing and destroying the gates of your enemies in your neighborhood etc. Advance and destroy their cities, hiding places, altars and their foundations. Declare you are taking them for God. Declare you are establishing new gates, gates of righteousness with the angels of God guarding them. Welcome the King of glory to enter and take over. It is important to survey where you are and destroy the enemy's exit and entry points that have been established through evil altars and foundations. God wants to come to your family, your neighbourhood, city, nation, institution etc welcome him. A pious attitude, stand, or titles cannot change this; it takes a man or woman of God who knows that he or she has been anointed by God at a time like this to destroy evil establishments and welcome Christ where we stay. Stop complaining about the problems in your locality, for you have the solution. A lion will be ruled by Hyena's until the day he will arise and roar as the king of the jungle, then every other animal will take cover.

You are Abraham's children by faith

It is your time to arise!

THE WORD OF GOD

September 19, 2016 by prayerunlimited

KEY TEXT: Luke 8:5-8

“A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some fell along the path and was trampled underfoot, and the birds of the air devoured it. And some fell on the rock, and as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it. And some fell into good soil and grew and yielded a hundredfold.” As he said these things, he called out, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear.”

In trying to explain about the kingdom of God, Jesus told the above parable to the multitude. Later he explained it's meaning to his disciples since they couldn't decipher it's meaning. How do you take the Word of God?

The Word of God is living and active. It's not just any ordinary word. In it, mysteries and secrets of the kingdom of God are revealed by the Holy Spirit. It makes a simple person wiser. The devil knows this too well and is always ready to steal it from an unsuspecting or careless Christian. He works hard to provide a climate that will choke it to die. God's plan for his word is to bring change – a long lasting one. Hearing it is hearing from God. As such we should treasure it and guard it. Thanks to the Holy Spirit who helps us to provide an enabling climate for it to grow to maturity. I find these declarations just too good to wish away any time I'm reading God's word.

Thank you father for your Word.

You have chosen to speak to me through it.

I believe and declare that it shall not rot, wither or die away.

The Spirit of God is providing an enabling environment for it to grow

This Word shall change me and others around me.

It shall accomplish God's plan for me

It shall bear fruits: 30 fold, 60 fold even 100 fold

Through it I will understand the mysteries and secrets of God

The Spirit of God shall hide it in me and will remind me always

I choose to hide it in my heart so that I won't sin against you

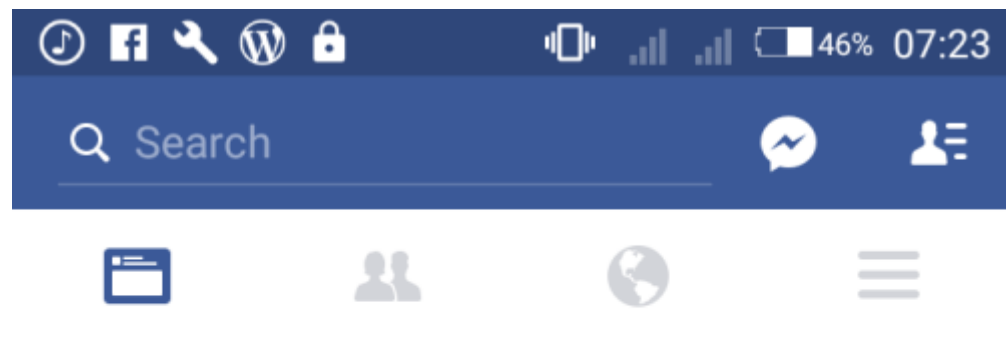

I will be what it says I am

I will do what it says I can do

I believe this with all my heart.

In Jesus name,

Amen

#DailyDevotion: Are you looking for answers? The Bible can answer every problem you ever thought you might have.

Most books inform; the Bible transforms. It is one of the simplest books to read, and yet it has the power to completely change every part of your life and being. If you aren't taking time each day to unearth the knowledge in this vast treasure, you need to start a daily routine. Make reading the Word of God a priority, and you will be amazed at the power you unleash over your life as the Lord makes old things new and restores your soul. The Word of God does not return void!

PRAYER FOR HUMILITY

September 18, 2016 by prayerunlimited

(<https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2016/09/wp-1474185742308.png>)

Let the scripture speak.

James 4:6 But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble."

How bad it is for God to resist you in prayer or service. Regardless of your position, if you are walking in pride, strive, seeking more of early praise, God will not listen to you. He cannot share his glory with man. Try the prayers below, with utmost sincerity :

That you may increase as I decrease

That you may receive glory in all I do

That you may help me not to think I'm standing on my own, that you may hold me not to fall

That at the end of the day it shall be about you in me and us

That I may be a servant, not lord over others

That I may help others complete, better than myself

That I shall not be blinded by praise of men, but that their praise to me shall be relocated to you

That I shall have a teachable spirit

That I shall recognise the beauty, strength and contribution of others

That I shall not boast or pride over my accomplishments, they are yours o Lord

That I shall be ready and willing always to be guided by your Spirit

That I shall not look down upon others because of their seeming lack

I shall endeavour to make the church of Christ great, one

I praise your name o God because the good work you have began in my life you will accomplish in Christ Jesus

FOR PRAYER WORRIORS, ITS TIME TO FIGHT LIKE NEVER BEFORE

September 1, 2016 by prayerunlimited

https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2016/09/fb_img_1472572600960.jpg

We are in the last days, no question about this. We are living at a very challenging time in the body of Christ. Wickedness has increased tremendously. The church is slowly losing relevance as it has compromised. Many of God's servants are walking defeated lives. Our children, families, governments, courts, politics and economy are threatened. We are crossing fingers because we fear the worst will happen, yet are doing nothing about it. We are in bondage and captivity, in chains and darkness. We have fought and are now tired. We have given up or are giving up.

This scenario can be compared with one that happened during prophet Habakkuk's time. There was idolatry, immorality, injustice, treachery, and general oppression to the people. His heart was sick at what he experienced in his everyday life.

When battles are at fever pitch, we need to move a notch higher and use better weaponry. We also need seasoned fighters. Habakkuk sat down and it his memory rekindled God's great happenings in the past. Habakkuk 3 is a story reminiscing God's great deeds in the past. Take note that God responded by doing battle in three places: the waters, heavens and the land. That is where battles are done even in our physical world. After reading carefully this I identify with its relevance to our generation and see the importance of crying out with habakkuk "...do it again lord in our generation". for who is better equipped to fight for us than the lord of Hosts? He says that the battle belongs to him.

Let the watchmen and prayer warriors in our generation repent on behalf of the church, then arise and make this cry: "O LORD our God, rend the heavens and come down, deliver us, save us, revive us for we are down, restore us back to you and your purposes for us." He will tear down the mountains, gates, chains, captivity and all wickedness released upon us. Let us keenly read the verses below and pray them out until they are part of us, let us celebrate as we receive by faith god's judgement upon our enemies in spiritual places.

Habakkuk 3:2-19 LORD, I have heard of your fame; I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD. Repeat them in our day, in our time make them known; in wrath remember mercy. God came from Teman, the Holy One from Mount Paran. His glory covered the heavens and his praise filled the earth. His splendor was like the sunrise; rays flashed from his hand, where his power was hidden. Plague went before him; pestilence followed his steps. He stood, and shook the earth; he looked, and made the nations tremble. The ancient mountains crumbled and the age-old hills collapsed— but he marches on forever. I saw the tents of Cushan in distress, the dwellings of Midian in anguish. Were you angry with the rivers, LORD? Was your wrath against the streams? Did you rage against the sea when you rode your horses and your chariots to victory? You uncovered your bow, you called for many arrows. You split the earth with rivers; the mountains saw you and writhed. Torrents of water swept by; the deep roared and lifted its waves on high. Sun and moon stood still in the heavens at the glint of your flying arrows, at the lightning of your flashing spear. In wrath you strode through the earth and in anger you threshed the nations. You came out to deliver your people, to save your anointed one. You crushed the leader of the land of wickedness, you stripped him from head to foot. With his own spear you pierced his head when his warriors stormed out to scatter us, gloating as though about to devour the wretched who were in hiding. You trampled the sea with your horses, churning the great waters. I heard and my heart pounded, my lips quivered at the sound; decay crept into my bones, and my legs trembled. Yet I will wait patiently for the day of calamity to come on the nation invading us. Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the LORD, I will be joyful in God my Savior. The Sovereign LORD is my strength; he makes my feet like the feet of a deer, he enables me to tread on the heights.

ASK GOD TO DO IT AGAIN

I COME TO YOUR THRONE OF GRACE

June 21, 2016 by prayerunlimited

Hebrews 4:14-16 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

Hebrews 2:10-11 In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered. Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.

Hebrews 2:14-15 Since the children have flesh and blood, he too shared in their humanity so that by his death he might break the power of him who holds the power of death—that is, the devil—and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by their fear of death.

As we approach God in prayer, we are coming to a throne; a throne of grace and mercy. This is the picture we should all have. He who sits there is Christ himself. He is our brother, even cleverer than our brothers, who is ready to help us in every way. He has passed all we pass through and has emerged victorious even without sin. He has been where we are, He understands our weaknesses, and He can offer our prayers to God in a better way than we do. And so friends, we can overcome death as He overcame sickness as He carried our infirmities sorrow as He became a man of sorrows captivity as He went into captivity and made it captive every temptation as He was tempted in every way yet without sin rejection as He was rejected abuse as He was abused physical, social and psychological attacks as He did false accusations as He was falsely accused labelling as He was labelled make it to heaven as He is already there

... and the list goes on.

It doesn't matter where we currently are, He was there and overcame, and He is ready to show us mercy and give us grace to overcome just as He did.

Lets tell Him that we are sorry where we let Him down. and BOLDLY ACCEPT HIS GRACE AND MERCY FROM JESUS OUR LORD AND BROTHER. We need to have this picture in our minds when we come to Him. He supplies my grace to conquer all in His name

TAKE ME TO THAT PLACE WHERE I HAVE NEVER BEEN BEFORE

June 17, 2016 by prayerunlimited

(<http://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2016/06/images-1.jpeg>)

Isaiah 45:3 And I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call [thee] by thy name, [am] the God of Israel.

John 15:7-11 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and [that] your joy might be full.

Jeremiah 33:3 Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not.

Jesus is calling us to a deeper relationship. He wants to show and help us experience treasures that are hidden in secret places. He is calling us to treasures of His love, peace, joy, humility, righteousness, unity, wisdom, knowledge, revelations, understanding, meekness, grace, peace, divine victory, holiness, faith, purity among others. It is a place where He sheds us off self righteousness, condemnation, bondage, yokes, burdens, self centeredness, pride, lust, covetousness, busy bodying, back biting, disunity, despair, fear, self worth etc. He leads us to this sacred place of His treasures. Treasures are never found easily or in the open, you must work to get them. In Christ however, You just need to surrender and desire Him alone. Seek to find Him, ask Him to give you grace to seek Him. As we abide in Him and Him in us, we start getting changed to this wonderful glory.

Lets desire to journey and partake of these treasurers. The more we draw nearer to His heart the more the treasure and glory, and the more He will glorify in us. This is a place where we see ourselves as unworthy and the worst of sinners were it not for His grace. It is a place where He alone receives glory from whatever we do while in these earthly vessels. It is a place where we start seeing through His eyes of love, hearing through Him and desiring to see holiness and justice in your life and church. A place we shall know His heart for the fallen world.

May our prayer then always be: Spirit of God, lead me to that place I have never been before where your love flows deeper than the sea.

HOW TO COME OUT OF PORN AND MASTURBATION.

May 24, 2016 by prayerunlimited

I have received many comments and questions related to the above after I wrote my first article about porn. I hadn't known the magnitude this devil had caused in the body of Christ. Many of those who get into porn or masturbation find themselves hooked through satanic addictions which they find quite difficult to come out. I advice those who find themselves hooked into this sin to :

1. Realize that you are sinning against Christ. Mt 5:27-28 Ye have heard that it was said, Thou shalt not commit adultery;but I say unto you, that every one that looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.
2. Desire to be set free. You are bound. Isa 61:1 The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is upon me; because Jehovah hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
3. If possible share with a servant of God to be prayed for deliverance. You should be patient for the deliverance can be instantly felt or come gradually.
4. Never lose hope. You may try to come out and fall back. This does not mean you have lost the battle or you have completely failed. Mic 7:8 Rejoice not over me, O my enemy; when I fall, I shall rise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.
5. You should resist the devil every time you feel an urge. Audibly command any demon of lust or sexual immorality to flee in Jesus name. Try it and you will find it working. However, you need to know that he will come back. The Bible records that satan promised to come back at an opportune time after failing in deceiving Jesus in the wilderness. Still resist him even if he comes 100 times. 1Pe 5:9 Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same experience of suffering is required of your brotherhood throughout the world.
6. Wait upon the Lord. He will renew and strengthen you. Isa 40:31 but they who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

7. Speak life, praise God, dont complain. You will always get what you constantly confess. Pr 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruits.
8. Fill your heart with the word. Let your heart be good soil for the word to grow. Take time to pray and fast. Drawing close to God has great power to transform your inner man. The closer you are to God the greater the desire to remain holy. Ps 19:14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in thy sight, O LORD, my rock and my redeemer.
9. Look at the crown of life kept before you. We are in a race, we must be careful in how we run so as to win the race before us and get the crown of life. Jas 1:12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to them that love him.

Re 2:10 Fear not the things which thou art about to suffer: behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.

(ASV)

10. Destroy captivity and every house of bondage in prayer. Speak freedom. De 5:6 I am Jehovah thy God, who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. Declare what Christ has done to us. Eph 4:8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, And gave gifts unto men.
11. Make a conscious effort to leave.
12. Put to death all manner of immorality and lust. Daily declare that you are putting them to death. Col 3:5 Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry.

TRAVAIL – Till Christ be FORMED in Others

March 7, 2016 by prayerunlimited

Key text

Gal 4:19 My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ be formed in you–

(ASV)

How often do you pray for new believers? How often do you pray for your pastor, friend, spouse, child? Many a times we celebrate when one has come to Christ; angels too rejoice in heaven. Jesus compares the idea of salvation with a sower planting seeds which fall in different soils. He says thus:

Mt 13:3-9 And he spake to them many things in parables, saying, Behold, the sower went forth to sow; and as he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them: and others fell upon the rocky places, where they had not much earth: and straightway they sprang up, because they had no deepness of earth: and when the sun was risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And others fell upon the thorns; and the thorns grew up and choked them: and others fell upon the good ground, and yielded fruit, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. He that hath ears, let him hear.

Any believer is a product of a seed sown (I hope and pray that the reader has been sowing, if not, do it – you must be productive).

Different soils and different climatic conditions will play a great part in the growth of this believer regardless of his age and years in salvation.

Paul, writing to the Galatian church helps them understand the passion he has had to see the church growing in the things of God. He call the church “my little children”, meaning that he regards himself to be their father. He further informs them that he has been travailing for them until Christ be born in them. Writing to Thessalonian church he says that his greatest desire is that the church (his hope, joy & glory) be worthy before our Lord Jesus.

That same mind that was in Paul should be ours too. We need to pray consistently that Christ be formed in the life of our dear one. That in all their manners they may be transformed to the image of Christ. Begin it and you will see great difference in their lives. Before you complain about them, put them daily praying Pauline prayers for the church to them- that Christ shall be formed in them, that they may grow in love; that God will give them wisdom, understanding, revelation etc; that they will love the LORD above all else. Travail until this is birthed. Remember, God holds you accountable for those he places near your reach. I was recently jolted by this testimony by Kenneth Hagin where he describes an episode that happened in his life. He had been led to intercede for a certain man but refused to heed the direction the Spirit of God was leading him to. He always thought he would have time to pray for him. After some time the man died, and God showed him through a vision where the man was. He was in hell, screaming and wailing as fire burned him without ceasing. It was a terrifying experience to him indeed. Jesus pointed out to him that He held him (Kenneth) responsible for the death of the man! Reason? He refused to intercede for him. How guilty are we also about the same? May God help us. Please take the challenge – intercede for Christ to be formed in others.

Make me a watchman who sees through your eyes

August 17, 2015 by prayerunlimited

Let the scripture speak. <https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2015/08/stand-in-the-gap.png>

Isa 61:1-4 The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me, because the LORD has anointed me to bring good tidings to the afflicted; he has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the year of the LORD's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; to grant to those who mourn in Zion—to give them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit; that they may be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified. They shall build up the ancient ruins, they shall raise up the former devastations; they shall repair the ruined cities, the devastations of many generations.

Isa 42:7 to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Isa 56:10 His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.

Isa 42:19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I send? who is blind as he that is at peace with me, and blind as Jehovah's servant?

Isa 42:18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.

Jg 6:12 And the angel of the LORD appeared to him and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor."

Jer 1:12 Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well, for I am watching over my word to perform it."

(All emphasis is mine)

When God looks from above, what does he see? He sees people who are struggling. Just to pick the above examples, he sees people who are: blind, deaf, afflicted with diseases, broken hearted, poor, imprisoned, in darkness, bound, mourning, in ashes, faint, devastated for many generations, dumb, without knowledge among many others that may not be in the above scriptures.

Sad enough, this is the same picture that He sees in many Christians. This is primarily why Jesus came, He saw the above and came to set them free.

Whose duty is it to set the above free? One answer: Christians.

What is the state of His servants, the Christians? They are blind, deaf, without knowledge, have given up, belittlers of themselves, too lazy to anything hence end up sleeping. This is the picture too with many of His watchmen. Too sad, isn't it? Don't look at the Christian watchmen you see around, please look at yourself. How free are you, how clear is your sight?

What does God see in us? What He saw in Gideon and in Jeremiah. A mighty man, a mighty warrior. Sadly many have ended up becoming mighty worriers!

What does He expect of us? He wants us to partner with Him to build, raise, restore, repair and bring back to order what the enemy has destroy or tampered with.

We need to see situations the way Jesus sees them, and we ought to see ourselves the way He sees us. We should see our friends, children, family members, neighbours, teachers and leaders through His eyes.

What holds us back? Several things including fear, doubt, laziness, the cares of the world, a don't care attitude, too busy and crowded days, ignorance etc

This pains Christ. He is looking for a people to arise and through prayer confront the issue. We need to fix the issues first spiritually before we do it physically. God still cries out as it was in the time of Ezekiel:

Eze 22:30 And I sought for a man among them, that should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none.(ASV)

Gideon never knew that he had all that was needed to confront the giants of his day, he had to get divine assurance. What more divine assurance do you need than this-

(<https://prayerunlimited.files.wordpress.com/2015/08/gap.png>)

Are you standing in the gap?

God is looking for a willing watchman, not a strong watchman. He qualifies the called, he does not call the qualified! Are you ready to confront the works of darkness you see around yourself and see God turning them round? Jesus' heart bleeds to get someone who will stand up to be counted for the task, no matter his status or qualification.

Arise, God is banking greatly on you, will you heed the call?

GOD'S WORD: OUR MANUAL

July 27, 2015 by prayerunlimited

For mankind to live victoriously, and reign with Christ eternally, he is expected to avoid pitfalls that may hinder his resolve. God's word is the manual for us to follow. It states the do's and don't's in a simple yet forceful way. Reason? Going against it will plunge one in regretful situations.

There is great parallelism between God's word and road signs traffic lights. Think for a minute what would happen to you if you ignored them. It would be catastrophic to say the least. Similarly, when God's word says 'DON'T', the results of going against it will be lethal and will hinder you from either 'enjoying your everyday life' or getting the ultimate prize. The do's equally guide us to exploring more of God's incomparable beauties of his blessings unto us. I cannot agree more with the psalmist when he says:

Psalms 119:11-12 Your word I have hidden in my heart, That I might not sin against You. Blessed [are] You, O LORD! Teach me Your statutes.

and that

Psalms 119:105 Thy word [is] a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path.

My advise to each one of us is to love the word of God and live it. Closely let us go back to this manual every time we are making a decision. Study it and allow it to shape your actions and thinking, and you will never regret. Hate what God hates, love what he loves & celebrate what He celebrates.

Remember: He has created us in his own image, and this manual guides us to be as He is.

PRAYERS TO POSSESS

May 24, 2015 by prayerunlimited

Possessing is a word that is severally used especially in the Old Testament. The children of Israel were to be given a land that didn't belong to them, after they had miraculously been delivered from their oppressors in Egypt. As part of God's promise, they were to inherit a "good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, that flow out of valleys and hills; a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive oil and honey; a land they would sow without scarcity; a land whose stones [were] iron and out of whose hills you could dig copper" Deut 8:7-9.

The reason as to why God was to give them the land had nothing to do with their good deeds, but out of God's love and compassion for them. He told them De 7:6-7 "For you are a holy people to the LORD your God; the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for Himself, a special treasure above all the peoples on the face of the earth. "The LORD did not set His love on you nor choose you because you were more in number than any other people, for you were the least of all peoples;"

When Joshua took over from Moses, God spoke to him thus: Jos 1:2-3 "Moses My servant is dead. Now therefore, arise, go over this Jordan, you and all this people, to the land which I am giving to them-the children of Israel. "Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses."

It is also evident, from numerous accounts in the Bible that God's people were not only to possess lands, but people, gates and cities as well. let the scripture speak:

Mic 1:15 I will yet bring unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess thee: the glory of Israel shall come even unto Adullam.

Ob 1:17 But in mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.

Eze 36:12 Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou shalt no more henceforth bereave them of children.

Ob 1:20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel, that are among the Canaanites, shall possess even unto Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, that are in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South

Ge 22:17 that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heavens, and as the sand which is upon the seashore. And thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.

For the children of Israel to possess these blessings, God directed them on how to go about it, how to maintain their possessions and the pitfalls to be wary of. First, they were not to be afraid of them, however impossible it seemed.

De 7:17-19 If thou shalt say in thy heart, These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them? thou shalt not be afraid of them: thou shalt well remember what Jehovah thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all Egypt; the great trials which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, whereby Jehovah thy God brought thee out: so shall Jehovah thy God do unto all the peoples of whom thou art afraid.

Secondly, they were to conquer them and destroy them completely, lest they become snares to them. They were also not to intermarry with them

De 7:2-3 and when Jehovah thy God shall deliver them up before thee, and thou shalt smite them; then thou shalt utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them; neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son.

Thirdly, they were to destroy their items of worship, namely altars, sacred pillars, wooden images and carved images. De 7:5 But thus shall ye deal with them: ye shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and hew down their Asherim, and burn their graven images with fire.

They were also to keep God's commands by observing them diligently. With this God would greatly bless them: De 7:15 And Jehovah will take away from thee all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, will he put upon thee, but will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

Moreover, God demanded from them not to covet any of the things used by the inhabitants of the land, they were not also to bring them to their houses for they would bring great ruin to them. De 7:25-26 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein; for it is an abomination to Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt not bring an abomination into thy house, and become a devoted thing like unto it: thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted (accursed) thing.

God promised them that He would drive away the inhabitants of the land. This would be done little by little until they were no more. God would hand them over to the Israelites to inflict defeat upon them.

De 7:22 And Jehovah thy God will cast out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

God's power would go before them, to smite their enemies, even their powerbases: Zec 9:4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

Wherever God takes his children, he expects them to possess. If they would not do this, then they would end up being ineffective in serving God. Child of God, God has raised you in your family, house, place of work, neighbourhood etc to possess. WHOEVER POSSESSES CONTROLS. You possess cities, gates, people, land etc and bring all under the subjection and authority of Jesus Christ. You arise and drive away whatever stands against the purposes of God. DON'T WHIMPER. ARISE AND POSSESS. Consider to use the prayers below to possess:

Start with praise and worship (take good time in this), repent and put on the full armour of God as in Eph 6:12 ff

Let the Lord arise and let his enemies be defeated in my life, in this institution, in ____ (fill as appropriate)

I praise you LORD for you make me possess blessings in your name

It is written that every place where the soles of my feet shall tread, I will possess

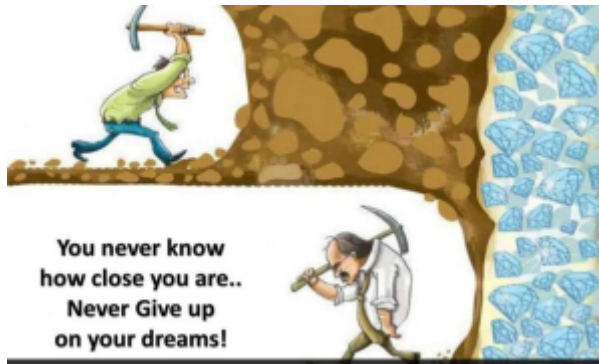

Arise o LORD in Jesus name, and drive away the wicked inhabitants of this _____

Let the thunder of the living God destroy every wicked foundation, city, powerbase, and let the works of darkness here be destroyed in Jesus name. Smite them all by your power and bring their works to nothingness in Jesus name
Thank you father, for you go before me to give me possession of my blessings
I bind the strongman of this _____, and slay him with the sword of the Spirit in Jesus name
Let the gates of the enemy/wicked be destroyed now by fire in Jesus name
I renounce wicked covenants made in this _____, and I arise and destroy every altar and idols of the enemy completely in Jesus name Arise o my God, and dispossess my enemies in Jesus name. I arise and possess my _____ (name) in Jesus name, and I bring all to the subjection and authority of Jesus Christ.
I destroy every wicked authority that stands against my blessings in Jesus name
Let the angels of the living God, angels of fire, war, terror arise and drive away the enemies from my land in Jesus name.
I claim by faith and I receive my blessings in this _____ in Jesus name
Let every accursed item in this _____ be consumed by fire in Jesus name let the blood of Jesus speak blessings in this _____ Let everything that the enemy had stolen be returned by fire in Jesus name. Let the angels of the living God arise and bring back generational blessings stolen from me in Jesus name. I receive them by faith in Jesus name.
Let every counter attack be destroyed by the fire and lightening of God in Jesus name
I arise and rule my possession in Jesus name. I speak blessings, peace, healing, restoration, the fear of the Lord, the glory of God and the kingdom of God (name any other blessing you wish to have) in this _____
Let the wisdom of the LORD guide me as I rule in this _____ in Jesus name.
Take time to thank God for prayers answered. Repeat these prayers until the Spirit of God leads you otherwise. Declare it, claim it. If you are a leader, you must possess those under your authority in Jesus name. There is no other name greater than that of Jesus. Declare what you wish done on Jesus name. You will be shocked to realize how the wicked rulers have been possessing those they lead through witchcraft and evil powers. Your power is greater than theirs. Be blessed

CONTINUE TRUSTING IN THE LORD, HELP IS ON THE WAY

April 13, 2015 by prayerunlimited

(Bible in Basic English)

Lu 18:7 And will not God vindicate his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? (Revised Standard Version)

In his teaching on perseverance in Prayer, Jesus taught of this widow who troubled a judge severally in her search for justice. The Judge had very little regard for her, but had to give in to do away with her noise (to have peace) as she constantly came to him. Jesus poses the above question, which in essence implies that if we don't tire, but continue to call on the Lord, God will meet our needs.

I don't know the present state of the person reading this, but whether in this boat or not, it will happen to you once, when you'll feel like you want to give up. Continue calling upon his name day and night, and give praise always for your redeemer is coming with solution to your problem. Some habits are very difficult to break, some problem do not seem to have any solution at hand, some situation may seem too tough; yet we have the ancient of days, who is with us and who gives us victory. Trust in God, don't give up, your help is on the way. Take these words to God as you pray and thank God that he is working on your issue.

Don't complain. Some people start quarreling God, asking him why he is not coming speedily to help, others wonder what they have done to God for Him to leave them in the den of lions. In all these situations, remember God is more concerned about your issues than you do. Let us all wait Him in hope and in faith.
